

Recommended Path

Specialization: Sustainable Supply Chain Management

	Year 1- 2024				Year 2- 2025
Semester	Fall		Spring		Fall		Spring
Period	1	2	3	4	1	2	3	4
Mandatory	Supply Chain Risk and Resilience	Supply Chain Strategy for Sustainability	Project Course in Corporate Social Responsibility and Humanitarian Logistics	Project Course in Corporate Social Responsibility and Humanitarian Logistics	Research Seminar in Supply Chain Management and Social Responsibility*	Research Seminar in Supply Chain Management and Social Responsibility*	Masters Thesis
	Supply Chain Management	Global Competence: Data Analytics	Advanced Operations Management	Global Competence: Social Responsibility across Business Studies
				Research Methods in Supply Chain Management				*Swedish Possible

In order to fulfill their degree credit requirements most students will be required to take a number of electives and/or language courses. Below are examples of some of those courses. Semester availability and offering subject to change.

Strategy for Sustainability	Organizing for the Sustainable Development Goals	Statistical Tools for climate and atmospheric science	Advanced Course in Excel and VBA	Advanced Internship in Supply Chain Management and Social Responsibility I + II
Humanitarian Logistics Part 1 and 2	Emerging Issues in Supply Chain Management and Sustainability	Service and Customer Strategy	Voluntary Work	Mandatory Language Course